

Be a Champion of Change and the Arts

GENERAL MANAGER CREATIVE ARTS & CULTURAL SERVICES

With a population of more than 68,000 in the municipal area, Launceston is a vibrant, diverse and beautiful place to live. Situated at the heart of the Tamar Valley wine growing region, very few places can match Launceston's natural and historic charm.

Recognised for its cultural vibrancy, the city is also a very attractive tourism and conference destination bringing considerable income to the local economy.

The City of Launceston currently owns and operates many notable cultural facilities including the Queen Victoria Museum and Art Gallery (QVMAG), the Princess Theatre, Earl Art Centre and Albert Hall.

Its flagship cultural asset, QVMAG was opened in 1891 and is Australia's largest regional museum, holding an impressive collection currently valued at more than $238M. QVMAG currently receives annual visitation of between 125,000-140,000 people largely made up of interstate and (pre COVID times) international visitors. There is also much excitement ahead for QVMAG with a major redevelopment in the pipeline.

The successful candidate will be a truly passionate and inspirational change agent and arts leader. You will bring great stakeholder management skills and vision to the future of this exciting portfolio..

You will have demonstrated success and experience in leading an arts and culture organisation/s with an emphasis on developing and delivering commercially successful and innovative programming.

An attractive Remuneration Package will be available for the right candidate for this once in a lifetime role.
