

EVENT	LOCATION	TIME	COST	DESCRIPTION
Saturday 12 August - Big Day of Science A science-based look at Future Launceston
Crazy Scientist	Meeting Room	10.30am, 12pm, 1.45pm	$3.00 per person	Science is a whole lot of fun with the Crazy Scientist!
Space Lecture	Auditorium	12.30pm	Free	Our planet's future
Planetarium Shows*	Planetarium	Shows on the hour from 11am	Free	A different show each hour. Each show includes a description of Tasmania's current night sky
Interactive displays		All day	Free	Discover how organisations are considering the future
City of Launceston	Temporary Exhibition Space			How is Council planning for the future?
QVMAG Staff	Temporary Exhibition Space/Perception Tunnel			What does your Future Launceston look like?
QVMAG Friends	Temporary Exhibition Space			Badge making
NRM North	Museum Foyer			How will the future health of the Tamar Estuary be effected as Launceston grows and changes?
Tamar NRM	Museum Foyer			Microplastics in the local environment
Fishcare	Museum Foyer			Examining fish sustainability
TasWater	Museum Foyer			Let's consider water quality
Innovation Circle	Battery Shed			Experience innovative, interactive experiences of the tech kind
Neural Knits	Phenomena Factory			Knitting neurons for 2018
Steminists	Learning Centre			Meet an actual living scientist
Sunday 13 August
Crazy Scientist	Meeting Room	10.30am, 12pm, 1.45pm	$3.00 per person	Science is a whole lot of fun with the Crazy Scientist!
Bug Club	Temporary Exhibition Space	10am-3pm	Free	Beetles, bugs, spiders and creepy crawlies
QVMAG Education	Temporary Exhibition Space	All day	Free	Build your Future Launceston
Monday 14 - Friday 18 August - Schools Program
Crazy Scientist	Meeting Room	9.30, 11am, 1pm	$3.00 per person	Science is a whole lot of fun with the Crazy Scientist!
Space Lecture	Auditorium	12pm	Free	Our planet's future
Planetarium Tasters*	Planetarium	20 minute shows twice per hour starting at 9.30am	Free	For school groups: a brief look at what the Planetarium has to offer
Interactive displays		All day	Free
QVMAG Education	Temporary Exhibition Space			Build your Future Launceston
City of Launceston	Temporary Exhibition Space/Perception Tunnel			How is Council planning for the future and what does Future Launceston look like?
Wednesday 16 August			Friday 18 August
Night at the Museum 6-9pm Free admission Come and explore the Museum by night. The Museum's façade will be lit up with images from our social media competition and stargazing will be taking place in our courtyard. The Crazy Scientist will host one show, with limited tickets available for $3.00 per person at the front desk on the night. The Railway Café and QVMAG Shop will also be open. Please no torches. Glow sticks available for $3.50 each.			Night at the Museum II 6-9pm Free admission Come and explore the Museum by night - stay up late and discover our darkened galleries by the light of a glow stick! The free Planet Lecture at 6-7pm will consider the discovery of new planets around other stars, plus stargazing will be on in our courtyard and the Railway Café and QVMAG Shop will also be open. Please no torches. Glow sticks available for $3.50 each.
Special Event WILD: An evening of Tasmanian food, responsibility and science. Enjoy a progressive menu featuring Tasmanian produce often overlooked in conventional cooking. Hear why we need to remember what's all around us from a chef, a nutritionist and a scientist. Guests are welcome to explore QVMAG following the event. Blue Café at Inveresk 6.15/6.30-8.30pm $55 pp excluding drinks Tickets available at Blue Café on 03 6334 3133 Limited places so bookings essential			For more information please email enquiries@qvmag.tas.gov.au <small>*Please note Planetarium shows are suitable only for ages five and up Paid public shows will run as normal at 1pm and 3pm</small>	