

Heritage Snap!

celebrating places
that matter

City of LAUNCESTON Heritage Advisory Committee

Heritage Snap! 2019

Grade 3-6

Grade 3-6

*'This picture is of the church I go to every Sunday
to worship God'*

St John's Church
St John Street, Launceston

Zusong Bazaadut age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

Old style fence - timber
Launceston

'It has an olden day handle and a calm look.'

Isobel Broadhurst age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'The fence
makes a stripy shape effect.'*

Old style fence - wire
Launceston

Isobel Broadhurst age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'It reminds me
of bonfires in the olden days.'*

Falling down fence
Launceston

Isobel Broadhurst age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

Red brick, Black timber
Launceston

'It has a sprinkle of nature.'

Isobel Broadhurst age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'It looks like a place that hunters would have slept in, in the olden days.'

White Shed in an Autumn Sky
Launceston

Isobel Broadhurst age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

'I like the way the design was made.'

Letter Box - Tyson House
Elphin Road, Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

'I like the way the way this is taken over the bushes.'

The Overgrown Bushes
East Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This looks magical through the trees.'

Leafy Tyson House
Elphin Road, Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I love the patterns on the archway.'

LPS House - Front Door
Elphin Road, Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I love the greenery and how you can see some of Tyson House.'

Looking at Tyson House
Elphin Road, Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I like the sun room on the side of the house.'

Side House
East Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This house looks grand but shows heritage.'

The Grand House
East Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'Through the branches it looks like there's a secret.'

Through the branches

East Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The combination of leaves is very beautiful.'

The Looking Hole
East Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

'Shows how the brick work was done and that it doesn't have that much colour.'

Through the Trees

East Launceston

Hollie Cullen age 9

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This is a photo of one of the windows in the chapel at Launceston Church Grammar School, Mowbray. LCGS is the longest continuously running school in Australia and the chapel is a unique place of worship and community in the life of the school. It's important to me because I have recently started attending LCGS and am enjoying being part of it.'

Chapel Rose Window
LCGS, Mowbray

Caitlyn Goodacre age 8
Launceston Church Grammar School

Grade 3-6

'This is a photo of one of the windows in the chapel at Launceston Church Grammar School, Mowbray. LCGS is the longest continuously running school in Australia and the chapel is a unique place of worship and community in the life of the school. It's important to me because I have recently started attending LCGS and am enjoying being part of it.'

Grammar Chapel
LCGS Mowbray

Caitlyn Goodacre age 8
Launceston Church Grammar School

Grade 3-6

*'This photo
of my school
reminds me of my grandma's school in Bhutan.
Our school is 130 years old'*

Far from Home

Invermay Primary School

Leedya Khesang age 11

Invermay Primary School

Grade 3-6

'This photos is of several old things and reminds me of stillness'

Weathered Invermay

Leedy Khesang age 11
Invermay Primary School

Grade 3-6

*'This photo
really intrigued me. It looks like you are in Summer and Autumn is waiting for you.'*

Autumn Vibes, Newstead

Elsie Miller age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I really liked the angle I took this photo on. I also like the pillars and the stained glass windows.'

Tyson House – The Round Room
Elphin Road, Launceston

Elsie Miller age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I ABSOLUTELY love this picture. It really represents me and my personality. It is so pretty.'

Next Door Neighbour Floral Photo

Elphin Road, Launceston

Elsie Miller age 9

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This photo looks very welcoming to me. I love the yellow door and the beautiful plants.'

Next Door Neighbour – Welcome surprise
Elphin Road, Launceston

Elsie Miller age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This photo reminds me of an Autumn landscape, the leaves are falling down and the trees are covering the to make it look cool.'

Richards Avenue – Autumn awaits
East Launceston

Elsie Miller age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The red leaves in this photo look really like it's Autumn time. They are creeping over the fence to make it look enchanted.'

Just over the fence
East Launceston

Elsie Miller age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

'I really like the pepper tree in the background and only a little part of the house is showing. The pepper tree looks really natural and beautiful.'

*Richards Avenue –
In the shade of a Pepper Tree*
East Launceston

Elsie Miller age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I absolutely LOVE this one too. The white roses represent winter and Tyson House in the background. It also represents me and my love of flowers.'

Tyson House – Winter Roses
East Launceston

Elsie Miller age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I took this photo because this tree is part of the heritage of the avenue.'

Large Tree on the Corner of the Street

Jack Millwood age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

Mature trees in yard of old house

*'I liked how the colours stand out in this photo.
The Autumn colour change higher in the tree.'*

Jack Millwood age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'I saw the pepper tree when we walked up the same road side as the tree
but I wanted to take the
photo from the other side of the road to get the whole tree in the photo.'*

Pepper tree in front of house

Jack Millwood age 9
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I like this photo because it looks naturally heritage and has lots of detail.'

The not so yellow door
Elphin Road, East Launceston

Sienna Mullenger age 11
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I like this photo because it shows perspective with the fence and the house at the front and the house at the back.'

The front fence

Elphin Road, East Launceston

Sienna Mullenger age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This picture has also got perspective and has a variety of colour.'

The row of houses

Elphin Road, East Launceston

Sienna Mullenger age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I like the angle I took this photo is on.'

The homestead

Elphin Road, East Launceston

Sienna Mullenger age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

Tyson House

Elphin Road, East Launceston

'I like how the photo has texture with the trees and bushes and then there's the house in the middle.'

Sienna Mullenger age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I like how the house is far away from the view and I like how it has natural autumn colours.'

The yellow tree

East Launceston

Sienna Mullenger age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'Dark Shadowy Garden'

Richards Avenue Autumn Garden    William Price age 10
East Launceston    Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'Panels of stained glass'

Tyson House Stained Glass Window

East Launceston

William Price age 10

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The big brick wall has thick crosses along the wall.'

Cross Wall
East Launceston

William Price age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'Backyard picture beside a tree'

Backyard
East Launceston

William Price age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The angle of the house combined with the letterbox is a great photo.'

Number 5
East Launceston

William Price age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'A driveway taken at a strange angle.'

Driveway

East Launceston

William Price age 10

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This photo shows how fences have changed and it also has lots of nature.'

Fenceline on Richards Avenue

East Launceston

Rosie Reed age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'It has a lot of different shapes and colours in the garden.'

Nature in the Garden

East Launceston

Rosie Reed age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The garden archway stands out a lot against the white fence.'

Light Fence – Nature's Archway

East Launceston

Rosie Reed age 11

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'The dark fence
stands out a lot
against the red brick and the trees.'*

Dark Fence
East Launceston

Rosie Reed age 11
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I liked this empty garage.'

Garage on Richards Avenue
East Launceston

Joseph Russnak age 12
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'A tree in someone's backyard.'

Tree in yard

East Launceston

Joseph Russnak age 12

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'House hidden behind trees.'

Old House next to Giant Tree

East Launceston

Joseph Russnak age 12
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'Autumn tree in front
of Tyson House.'*

Tyson House

Elphin Road, East Launceston

Joseph Russnak age 12

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'The Tyson House
sign on red brick.'*

Tyson House Sign

Elphin Road, East Launceston

Joseph Russnak age 12

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'House and trees
under a blue Autumn sky.'*

House Hidden by Trees

East Launceston

Joseph Russnak age 12

Launceston Preparatory School

Heritage Snap! 2019

*Grade 3-6
Commendations*

Grade 3-6 Commendation

'This photo is of an old Examiner which we found at my school, my grandfather works at the Examiner. He is 62'

Connections

The Examiner Newspaper

Jeremiah Billing age 10

Invermay Primary School

Grade 3-6

'This photo shows that new beginning's can happen anywhere'

New Life

Invermay Primary School

Jeremiah Billing age 10

Invermay Primary School

Grade 3-6 Commendation

'The Chimneys are from very separate rooms in the building and are a key to the age of the house, and so are the spiky pattern parts on top of the building.'

Chimneys of Tyson House
Elphin Road, Launceston

James Corbould age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The green stained glass windows on the top of the picture window and the red brick arching around to make the bright yellow leaves stand out..'

Tyson House 1
Elphin Road, Launceston

James Corbould age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'This photo was taken with a Go Pro with no actual fisheye effect, however it gives the impression that it was..'

Fence of Fisheye

Elphin Road, Launceston

James Corbould age 10

Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

Tyson House Feature
Elphin Road, Launceston

'The design of the woodwork featured in this photo helps date the heritage of this building.'

James Corbould age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The house is surrounded in red brick with the cross on top, this is actually not part of the house but from the church behind it.'

The House of Time
Elphin Road, Launceston

James Corbould age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'The door leads to our school
and the pillars are made from brick and concrete.'*

Tyson House 2
Elphin Road, Launceston

James Corbould age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Heritage Snap! 2019

*Grade 3-6
Awards*

Grade 3-6 Award - Joint Winner

'I have been performing at the Launceston Competitions for nearly seven years as a dancer.'

'I get butterflies even walking past this building!'

The Princess

Brisbane Street, Launceston

Isobel Miller age 10

St Thomas More's Primary School

Grade 3-6

Architectural Conglomerate

Cameron Street, Launceston

'Launceston is a special city with a diverse range of architectural styles. One gaze above the city on any corner reflects this.'

Isobel Miller age 10

St Thomas More's Primary School

Grade 3-6

'Lord Escobar has created a miniature world of mystery- a little bit of Alice in Wonderland in the city of Launceston.'

What's Behind the Green Door?

Isobel Miller age 10
St Thomas More's Primary School

Grade 3-6 Award - Joint Winner

'When I moved into the house I live in I loved the gate'

Reminds me of Home

Annie Howard age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'It is beautiful in this garden'

Sneak Peak in Richard's Avenue

Annie Howard age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'I love walking out the front door of school (students don't usually use this door)'

Tyson House Autumn 2019 - front on

Annie Howard age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

*'There is a beautiful tree
in our front garden.'*

*Tyson House
Autumn 2019 - side on*

Annie Howard age 10
Launceston Preparatory School

Grade 3-6

'The house next door to school is a beautiful house.'

The next door neighbour

Elphin Road, Launceston

Annie Howard age 10

Launceston Preparatory School

Heritage Snap! 2019

Grade 7-10

Grade 7-10

'This photo was taken at Clarendon house in a room that would have originally it would have been the mistress of the houses tea room or escape from her children.'

High Tea
Clarendon House

Sananda Day age 12
St Patrick's College

'This photo was taken out side of clarendon house but before stables were there it was home to aboriginals for many years, later on it was the river that salmon was introduced in Tasmania.'

South Esk

Sananda Day age 12
St Patrick's College

Grade 7-10

'This photo shows the back but still beautiful structure of Clarendon house. I think that the imperfection of the garden is even more pretty then the well maintained front. I love this garden and house and it is very important to keep this bit of history alive for more years to come as it not only tells the story of James cox and his family but it tells the story of the slaves and maids that were made to work and live such a harsh and cruel life and of the aboriginals who were kicked out of there rightful home.'

Clarendon house and garden

Sananda Day age 12
St Patrick's College

Grade 7-10

'Found near the John Hart Conservatory in City Park, the fountain was built in 1897 to commemorate Queen Victoria's Diamond Jubilee (60 years of reign).

Every time I walk past the iconic fountain I am brought back to my childhood, running around City Park like many other children in Launceston.

City park celebrates Launceston's nature, culture and beauty.'

Queen Victoria's Children Jubilee Fountain

City Park, Launceston

Shirin Kilinc age 15

Launceston Church Grammar School

Grade 7-10

*'A beautiful building
containing a beautiful collection of old and new art.'*

Art Gallery

Royal Park, Launceston

Sam Miller age 12

Grade 7-10

Park Life
City Park, Launceston

'City Park is a special place to escape to in the heart of the city.'

Sam Miller age 12

Grade 7-10

Lest We Forget
Royal Park, Launceston

'A monument to honour those who gave all for our quality of life.'

Sam Miller age 12

Heritage Snap! 2019

*Grade 7-10
Commendations*

Grade 7-10 Commendation

'This building could be in Gotham City its distinctive vertical features and dynamic lines suggest speed, motion and perspective, appropriate to its original use as a car showroom.'

Gotham City

Duncan House, Launceston

Sanden Cook age 15

Riverside High School

Grade 7-10

Industrial Remains

Launceston

'The industrial buildings along the North Esk River are the remains of the history of technology and industry.'

Their rich coloured brickwork, simple functional shapes and primary colours make them important buildings in our city.'

Sanden Cook age 15

Riverside High School

Grade 7-10

Pocket Watch

Duncan House, Launceston

'Glimpses of the Launceston Post Office clock tower appear in unexpected places and if not seen its chimes can be heard.'

The sound has as much heritage importance as its form as it has been heard in the city for over 100 years.'

Sanden Cook age 15

Riverside High School

Grade 7-10 Commendation

'After years of controversy, Launceston's C.H. Smith site has finally been given a new lease of life, linking the city's proud past with an exciting future. The redevelopment of the site proves it is possible to preserve the historic spirit of the city while providing for the needs of a progressive community.'

REBORN: Launceston's C.H. Smith building standing proud

Thomas Page age 12
St Patrick's College

Grade 7-10

'Overlooking City Park, Sunnybank, at 15 Brisbane Street, Launceston, is one of the city's oldest surviving buildings.'

Built in 1824 by Englishman William Effingham Lawrence, it may not be a grand building but it's a reminder of our city's rich past.'

1824: Sunnybank at 15 Brisbane Street, Launceston

Thomas Page age 12
St Patrick's College

Heritage Snap! 2019

*Grade 7-10
Award*

Grade 7-10 Award

Genders Lane    Launceston

'This hidden piece of history in Genders lane is full of detail with diamond pattern brickwork, pointed wall bracing posts and a Victorian hoist.'

Not many spaces feel like you are transported back in time as in Genders lane.'

Theo Cook    age 13
Riverside High School

Grade 7-10

'Is it a building or is it a T.V there are even dials to turn it on, change the channel and volume.'

'This place matters as its design reflects its original purpose and it has the ability to make you smile.'

TV Façade

The Quadrant, Launceston

Theo Cook age 13

Riverside High School

Cornices and Mouldings

Grade 7-10

'It is easy to forget to look up but Launceston's Victorian heritage is most interesting above the street awnings.'

The detail in the extravagant cornices and mouldings is best captured in the winter sunlight.'

Theo Cook age 13
Riverside High School

Heritage Snap! 2019

*Grade 11-12
Awards*

Grade 11-12 Joint Award

Chalmer's Church Launceston

*'The mirrored reflection of Chalmer's Church on St
John Street, Launceston.'*

Pheobe Saunders age 17
St Patrick's College

Grade 11-12

Decaying Church Launceston

*'The mirrored reflection of Chalmer's Church on St
John Street, Launceston.'*

Pheobe Saunders age 17
St Patrick's College

Grade 11-12 - Joint Award

'Launceston is fortunate to have many styles different of architecture and Chalmers is an excellent example of the flamboyant gothic revival style.'

'These buildings must be cherished to allow Launceston to maintain this unique standing as having a seamless blend of old and new.'

Chalmers in the Sun

Alexandra Phillips age 17

Scotch Oakburn College

Grade 11-12

'Homes such as these are the hidden gems of Launceston. Whilst they may fly under the radar it is unique building such as these, steeped in history, that make Launceston a special place to live.'

The Terraces

St John Street, Launceston

Alexandra Phillips age 17

Scotch Oakburn College

Grade 11-12

'Prince's Square, established in 1858 from a disused brick field, provides an inviting green space close to the CBD for all to enjoy.

It is areas such as this that need to be cherished more than ever in the wake of a new age in which climate change is at the forefront.'

The Square

Princes Square, Launceston

Alexandra Phillips age 17

Scotch Oakburn College